

OPS Analysis Public Right to Know Information

Item	Does this exist on OPS website?	Other sources?	Any issues/limits with supply the data?	Ability to understand?
Incident/Accidents	Yes		Interstate companies only, not a searchable database.
Enforcement Activities	Yes		After action has been taken (it can take several years for this to occur). New stakeholder communication website explains the process, but does not give details of enforcement against companies.
Ownership	No	Pipeline company websites?	Can change often.
Inspection	No, need a searchable database by company name.		If OPS does enforcement, info is apparently available on the OPS website after action has been taken. Very difficult to locate on OPS website.
Repair	No, need a searchable database by company name.	Pipeline company websites?
Mileage	Yes	Pipeline company websites?	Located on the new stakeholder communication website. WUTC notes that the WA mileage is reported differently (includes service length mileage); this could be the same for other states.
Basic Pipeline Info	No	Pipeline company websites?

Public Right to Know Information

Item	Does this exist on OPS website?	Other sources?	Any issues/limits with supply the data?	Ability to understand?
Pipeline Contact Info	Yes	Pipeline company websites?	Yes, must know something about the pipeline i.e. transmission or distribution, gas or liquids, and name change history.
Maps	Yes	NPMS and commercial companies.	NPMS not available to general public after 9/11, only available to local government. Commercial companies charge for the map info.
Spill Preparedness	No	State Ecology, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Coast Guard and EPA websites?	State Ecology website has drill calendar, overview of spill drills, but not detailed, company specific or drill outcomes. NOAA had some spill information and satellite photos of oil spills.
Safety Reports	Yes	NTSB and DOT websites.	Reports are not released until the investigation is completed. Need a searchable database to look up older reports.
Financial Data	No	Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) website within Form 6.	Financial data is on the web, but the search function is too complicated.
Pipeline Mngt	No.	Pipeline company websites?	There is no central location for this info.
Environmental Info	No	State Ecology and FERC websites	Ecology website links to state Environmental Impact Statements. FERC website had info on projects by region.
